C. P. R. WILL BUILD DOWN TOWN OFFICES

Takes Five Year Lease on Jasper Ave.
Lot Now Occupied by J. P.
Clinton's Real Estate Office

At the council meeting last night a communication was read from F. W. Peters of the Canadian Pacific, in which he asks for a slight variation of the fire bylaw in favor of his company, the request for which indicates that the company intends to open up down town offices in a building of their own in the near future.

The permission applied for was to move the building on Jasper avenue, now occupied by J. P. Clinton, real estate office, and A. H. Cook, photographer, to the back end of the lot and build a brick one-storey office building adjoining it in the front. The permission was granted on condition that the brick structure have four walls so that the new building would be separated from the old by a fire wall.

While in the city yesterday F. W. Peters made a deal with McDougall & Secord, the owners of the property for a five years' lease of the ground in question and building will start as soon as possible in the spring. The intention is to have the ticket, freight office, telegraph office and the general offices of whatever superintendents may be located in this city in the new building. The terms of the lease, other than the length of time have not been made public.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 10.—At today's session of the convention of the Moralists party, a motion was passed to send greetings to the Liberal and Labor parties in Great Britain on the victories achieved by them which the delegates looked upon as the dawn of a new era for that country.

WELL DONE EDMONTON.
(Calgary Alberta)

The Albertan is not well informed upon the details of the dispute between the City of Edmonton and the gentlemen who claim to hold a franchise for a street railway in that city.

But to see a City council unanimously agree to stand off and give battle, and battle to the last of the chapter, to franchise grabbers, who desire to fasten the city with a system which is not agreeable to the citizens, is a sight pleasing to look upon.

The believers in municipal ownership will watch with interest the battle that is being waged in the north, and will look anxiously for the victory of the city.

In the meantime it would be well for the people of Calgary many of whom are favorable to a street railway under private control, for a time at least, to remember that Edmonton has had some negotiations with private companies, with the result that they have decided to fight to a finish before recognizing the private company in any way.

COUNCIL WILL HAVE PROPOSITION READY

Special Meeting to be Held Before Excursion to Discuss Deal That Will be Offered to Morse

At the special meeting of the council last night which was called primarily with the object of going into the report of Auditor Neff, a good deal of time was taken up going into the city's franchise business and very little left for the report.

The committee appointed some time ago to go before the Government and press on it the desirability of the Province of Alberta going into the telephone business and taking over the long distance lines, was revived, and the committee re-commissioned to proceed with the task of trying to induce the members of the Government to go in for provincial ownership of the system. The name of the mayor was added to that of Alderman Grisham and Boyle on the committee, taking the place of Alderman Clark of the council of '95. The committee will begin right away and will press for legislation at the coming session.

Mr. Inglis and his street railway franchise took an hour of the council's time, but as the Aldermen do not propose to "tip the city's hand" the press was asked to withhold the discussion. A letter from R. P. Inglis to the mayor in which the company puts its case in writing before the council was placed before the meeting. Mr. Inglis, in his letter supplements his remarks of Tuesday evening last by an offer to put up another $10,000 deposit, to guarantee to build eleven miles of railway and asking the council to place the franchise proposition before the ratepayers again for a vote. The letter was laid on the table without much consideration from the council. It reads as follows:

Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 19, '06.
Chas. May, Esq.,
Mayor of the city of Edmonton,
Edmonton, Alta.

Re Edmonton Street Railway Co.
My dear Mr. Mayor:
I appeared before the council on Tuesday night for the purpose of stating the position of the company, and it occurs to me that it may be well to have this stated in writing at the present time.

The company have been to a very considerable expenditure in preparation for the construction of the railway, all machinery having already been purchased, a portion of which is on the ground and the rest ready for shipment.

Acting upon the view which I expressed to the council that the company continues to have rights under the charter and franchise, but realizing that at all events some of the members of the council were of an opposite opinion, I desire to get an expression of their opinion from the council, and to have the matter brought squarely before them.

This was of importance in order that the company might know exactly what position the city would take before going to the further expense which was contemplated for 1906, for the purpose of constructing at least eleven miles of line, as well as of erecting a power house and of installing the necessary machinery.

The company have procured under the charter with the utmost expedition, and with the full intention of complying strictly with the building requirements. By a series of misfortunes, they have not been able to complete the construction of the two miles which were to have been built by September 1st, 1905, for which they have already forfeited the sum of $10,000, but in lieu of this they are now prepared to complete in 1906, an amount of road in excess of that which the original condition was that they should have completed in 1905.

In order to guarantee this construction, the company would be willing to make a further deposit of $10,000 or such other amount as the council may see fit, and to have the council or a committee of the council fully investigate the financial ability of the company to complete the work.

The legal opinions already obtained by the company would justify them in the event of the council desiring to have the matter fought out in the courts in carrying the question to the privy council in England, and the delay which would thus be caused might, with the present rapid advance in population, seriously affect the progress of the city.

Might I suggest that before the council take a step of so great importance, involving so great an expenditure and necessary delay, that the matter be submitted to the citizens, who will be particularly affected.

This letter is of course without prejudice to the rights of the company as they now exist.

I remain, sir, yours truly,

ROBT. P. INGLIS.

The special auditors report was laid on the table but only discussed in a cursory way, the figures or merits of the case not having been entered into. As it was already late in the evening the whole matter was left over until Tuesday morning.

While speaking of the matter, however, Alderman Boyle pointed out that Mr. Neff's report was in the nature of a report on Tomlinson's report and that in order to understand the Neff report it was necessary to have the other. Alderman Boyle had prepared a sort of special report of his own in which he compared the two. His resume shows that there are 52 clauses in the Tomlinson report, with twenty-eight of which Neff agrees in toto, on sixteen of which he is indefinite, on one of which he agrees partly and one he considers of no importance, and with only six of which he disagrees. Furthermore, he says, Mr. Neff goes farther than Mr. Tomlinson and recommends that the whole city books be closed out and a new set started. Ald. Boyle said that rather than a repudiation of the Tomlinson report, the Neff report corroborated it in so many particulars that it practically bore the ex-auditor out in full. Ald. Boyle moved that typewritten copies of the Tomlinson report be placed in the hands of the Aldermen before the next meeting, which was carried.

The discussion of the railway situation occupied a large part of the council's time. The commissioners were instructed to write Wm. Mackenzie of the Canadian Northern and ask him to meet the council in Winnipeg on the 27th. The city council will also endeavor to meet the C. P. R. authorities at the same time and will deal with the Grand Trunk Pacific there in making a provisional agreement, although nothing definite will be signed either with Mr. Morse or the C. P. R. people until the council returns to the city. The council will hold another meeting some time between now and the 27th in order to frame up a definite proposition to make to Mr. Morse when they meet him. The mayor and city council seem to feel that they can offer a deal to the C. P. R. and the Grand Trunk Pacific which will bring both of them to the city with all their works.

ALL EIGHT WENT LIBERAL

Bannerman Government has Already Gained 131 Seats

London, Jan. 20.—Out of eight returns of Friday's voting received up to 2 o'clock, seven were liberal gains, the other seat being already held by a liberal, 131 majority being increased from 817 to 2810. Thus are the country ridings with even greater unanimity than the borough joining in what has become known as "The Flowing Tide." In all forty six seats were decided to-day but 8 o'clock is the closing hour which making it impossible to get the returns, the liberal gain now aggregate 131 and labor 28 off by only 4 conservatives. The parties stand, liberals 231, conservatives 96, nationalists 72, labor 34.

CALGARY RADIAL RAILWAY PROPOSED

Calgary, Jan. 19.—The Commissioners of Calgary have already considered informally the question of a street railway for Calgary. They have taken no real action on the question though formal consideration will be given in a short time and a report will be made to the council.

It is the belief of certain members of the commission that the question of a street railway will not be as serious as the people of Calgary have believed. It is estimated that the cost of an 8-shaped railway or an H-shaped road would be without power about $125,000. The cost of power will depend on the amount that the city proposes to spend. With a power house worked in conjunction with the present light company the cost would be very considerable.

FRENCH WAR-SHIPS OFF VENEZUELAN COAST

France Will Demand an Immediate Apology for President
Castro's Discourtesy to Her Representative

Paris, Jan. 20.—France will demand an immediate apology from President Castro of Venezuela for what is regarded here as his insulting and unwarrantable treatment of the French charge d'affaires.

M. Mabourge the Venezuelan charge d'affaires who was expelled from French territory has gone back to Belgium. War it is feared is imminent and brisk preparations are in progress. Warships have already left for Venezuelan waters.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Three French warships are now off the Venezuelan coast prepared to deliver the answer of France to President Castro's treatment of M. Tagnog French representative at Caracas. Two additional warships will join them.

CITY GETS BIG RAKE-OFF
Winnipeg, Jan. 20.—Winnipeg electric railway earnings for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1905, amounted to $55,650.50. The city is entitled to 5 per cent of this which amounts to $2,782.53.

FOUND DEAD IN A CHAIR

A report reached the city yesterday of the sudden death of a Galician at the hotel at Camrose on Monday night last, which will probably call for an investigation on the part of License Inspector W. H. Cooper.

According to the report, three Galicians were drinking in the Camrose hotel on Monday night, and commenced wrestling in a friendly spirit, but the landlord, Ole Bakken, not appreciating their horseplay, ordered them out of the hotel. Later one of the Galicians came back into the house and sat down on a chair, where he went to sleep. When it came time to look up, the hotel people tried to awaken him, and were shocked to discover that he had died in the chair.

An investigation was held on Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Robertson, of Wetaskiwin, conducting the inquiry. The verdict showed that the man died a natural death, and that no suspicion of wrong doing attached to anyone. The official report of the inquest has not yet reached the license inspector.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

Mr. Harrison Young, fisheries inspector, accidentally shot himself in the right arm last evening, while cleaning a shot-gun. Mr. Young was making preparations at the time for a trip of inspection. He is expected to be around again shortly, not being seriously injured.

THE SEED SPECIAL IN STRATHCONA

Addresses Made by Mr. Lanigan and Prof. Clark in Sister Town Yesterday

Strathcona, January 19.—The special seed train, with professional specialists on board came in about 11:30 a.m. The special car was tastefully decorated with fine samples of grain, and glass tubes showing grain and proportion of noxious weeds in the ordinary grain as taken from cars shipped to Lake Superior.

Professor Clarke acted as chairman and opened the meeting in a brief speech, introducing Mr. W. B. Lanigan.

Mr. Lanigan gave a very practical and humorous address, mentioning his experience in farming in his early days. He spoke of the interest which his company was taking in the clean seed crusade and the assistance they received from the Dominion and Provincial Governments. He said a Conservative estimate of the loss to the farmers west of Winnipeg for 1905 was $20 on account of bad seed, smut, and weeds. He instanced the loss to the U. S. government on account of parasites which prey upon the cotton plant and the efforts made to overcome the loss. He spoke of the importance to the farmers of Alberta of selecting the very best seed and of making every conceivable effort to destroy smut and weeds. He exhorted the farmers to co-operate and fight these pests to a finish and thus avert this terrible annual loss.

Prof. Clarke was the next speaker and took up the practical aspect of the question. He passed around many samples of grain in glass bottles, figures on which showed weight per bushel of sample, also percentage of grains which would germinate. He likewise explained different simple methods by which the ordinary farmer could determine the germinating power of seeds. He dwelt at considerable length on "smut," how to distinguish, and how best to combat its ravages. He recommended that wheat be treated with formaline. He showed what proportion of each to use per bushel, the best method of treatment, and how to distinguish the pure articles when purchasing them. He spoke of the necessity of having good fanning mills and for the farmers to hand-pick the grain for seed, after passing it through a good mill. He also advised each farmer to have a "special plot" in which to grow seed grain. He passed among the audience several samples of oats grown at the O. A. C. Guelph. He concluded an eminently practical address which clearly showed his knowledge of the subject.

Dr. Fletcher, botanist, Ottawa, next addressed the audience on the subject of weeds and how best to eradicate them. He spoke of the ball mustard, wild mustard, wild oats, couch grass, sow thistle, Canada thistle, and stink weed, and gave the latest and most approved methods of fighting and eradicating those common and dangerous pests, which prey upon the farmer's different crops. He exhibited many specimens of the different weeds found in the average crop and explained in detail the proper way to combat and overcome them. He approved of having true drawings of such weeds in all public schools so that the pupils in those different institutions at an early age may be able to distinguish such weeds and be instrumental in helping to destroy them. He said the farmer, as regards weeds, should be like the proverbial Irishman who strikes every head he sees and hits to win. He said the two vital organs of the weed or any plant are the leaves and root and every time those were cut the plant was weakened. He also spoke favorably of harrowing the grain crops when about three inches high. A gentleman in the audience asked if he would recommend spraying wild mustard. The speaker replied the cost was $1 per acre and therefore too expensive. At the conclusion of Dr. Fletcher's remarks Prof. Clark called on the Hon. A. C. Rutherford to address the audience. The premier gave a brief, practical address in which he thanked Mr. Lanigan for what the C.P.R. had done to make these gatherings a success, and of his pleasure at being present and also that his government was fully aware of the importance of the topic just discussed and in perfect harmony with every movement to improve and advance agriculture in Alberta.

Mr. Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture for Alberta, was then called on and made a few brief, well-chosen remarks and called upon all farmers present to stop that serious loss of $20,000,000 annually, to which Mr. Lanigan referred. In his address, at this stage of the proceedings, the C. N. R. engine came along to take the train over the river. This closed a very successful and enthusiastic meeting at which many of our most enterprising citizens and farmers were present.

I will say to the public in general I am now ready to treat any and all kinds of diseases, and I defy any one to bring anything to my office that I cannot relieve and cure if my advice is strictly complied with, providing it is a possible curable case. I have studied the making of cigars all my life and I know just what style of rolling makes the best smoke. I have taken the young men of Granby and taught them to make cigars my way—and I watch them to see that each cigar is made that way. If I made every one of my Pharaoh cigars myself they couldn't be more carefully or more perfectly made.

The result is that my

is not rolled so tight that it draws hard or so loose that it burns badly—just the right amount of filler, properly held by the binder, and finished with the wrapper so it smokes freely and burns evenly.

The test of a cigar is the smoking of it, and I am sure after trying my cigar you will agree with me that it is an excellent smoke.

Every genuine "Pharaoh" cigar is branded "Pha-roh"

SEED GRAIN EXHIBITION

A Seed Grain Exhibition will be held in Robertson hall on February 12th and 13th, under the auspices of the Alberta Farmers' Association. While the fair is designed primarily for the interest and benefit of the grain grower, all interested in the agricultural progress of the country are invited to attend and the management trusts that the sympathy of the public with the purposes of the exhibition will be manifested by large attendance. The intention is to make the exhibition an annual event.

The purpose of the exhibition is primarily to encourage the production and use of the best seed grain in the belief that the quality of grain produced in the district may be bettered. To this end suitable prizes will be offered for exhibits of seed wheat, oats, barley, flax and timothy. The prizes will cover all kinds of these grains and will aggregate over $400. Every facility will be offered after the prizes have been awarded for the sale and purchase of exhibits. Exhibitors will fix the prices on their own exhibits and an expert will be in attendance to assist in the selection of seed by thus providing a market for the seller, as well as a source of supply for the buyer. It is hoped that encouragement may be given to the production of grain suitable for seed and in consequence to the raising of better grades of grain generally.

The opportunity will also be taken to conduct an educational campaign directed toward the benefit of the grain grower. Farmers meetings at which opportunity will be given for the exchange of opinions and experiences will be held each morning at 10.30 and arrangements are being made for lectures to be delivered by competent authorities in the afternoon and evening of each day.

So far the enterprise has met with splendid encouragement. The business men of the city have co-operated substantially with the farmers in the matter of subscriptions toward the expenses and the outlook is for a successful and profitable exhibition.

CURRENT COMMENT

British Liberals must have read the returns from Alberta.

"eat too much" is the candid looking heading of a post-holiday editorial in the Okotoks Review.

Admirers of Sir Conna Doyle may now expect another Sherlock Holmes story on the "Adventure of the Literary Knight."

The Toronto Telegram declines to call Sir Wilfrid Laurier a "political assassin." Probably some other journal got in ahead.

And our own Sir Gilbert Parker was re-elected, but as an eastern wit remarks he no longer occupies one of the "Seats of the Mighty."

"Arms and the Woman" is the sufficiently appropriate heading under which an eastern contemporary publishes a lecture on short sleeved gowns.

R. B. Bennett, Esq., continues to address the same line of monopoly oratory to the Calgary board of trade that he formerly fired at the electors of the Province.

The Lacombe Advertiser hits the nail on the head when it says: "Just 'mind telling you that this thing of 'enlarging a newspaper brings trouble in exit confidence now, we don't 'bles of its own to the publisher."

Toronto News: "With reference to 'a despatch published by the Winnipeg Tribune and repeated in the News a few days ago, alleging that the Canadian Northern Railway had recently acquired a couple of million acres of the finest prairie land in Saskatchewan, it is stated at the head office of the Canadian Northern Railway 'here that it is untrue that no recent grants have been acquired by the railway, and that its lands are 'earned as construction proceeds according to the grants from the Government.' Will the other Opposition journals who stole the story without credit from the original publishers reproduce also the correction?"

Commenting on the election of Mr. Geo. McCreaney as Liberal standard bearer for the bye-election in Saskatchewan, the Saskatoon Phenix says: "The Liberal party has chosen a man well worthy to represent the 'constituency of Prince Albert in the 'House of Commons of Canada. The 'Conservative party could not do "better under the circumstances, than allow him to go in by acclamation. 'The Opposition at the present time 'is weak and disorganized. They have 'no particular platform that will appeal to the people of the West. And 'they have no chance of victory in 'Prince Albert. We want a Government man in the constituency, and 'so do the Conservatives who have 'our best interests at heart."

Toronto News: "When the Canadian Pacific Railway was projected, 'there were timid souls, who said that 'it was too far north to pay. Now, 'the Canadian Pacific is to be extended to Edmonton, which was reached 'by the Canadian Northern the other 'day, and which is one of the points 'to be served by the Grand Trunk 'Pacific. The fact established by the 'building of the Canadian Northern is 'that the farther north the railways 'penetrate the better business they obtain."

The next interesting revelation 'will come when the new lines pierce 'the Rocky Mountains, and the resources of the northern portions of 'British Columbia are opened out. 'Railway construction has as yet only 'touched the fringe of the magnificent Pacific Province, with its great 'resources of timber, minerals and fish, 'and its access to the highway of Oriental commerce. Astonishing as the 'development of the prairie country has 'been, we think that at least an equal 'surprise awaits the country in the opening up of the treasures of British 'Columbia."

Mr. DINGMAN'S STORY.

To the Editor of "The Bulletin," Edmonton, Alberta.

Dear Sir—In your issue of the 15th inst. in your article re the striking of gas in the second well drilled by the North West Gas and Oil Company are some errors, which intentionally or otherwise appear to reflect somewhat disparagingly upon myself. I am sure your sense of fair play will enable me to make my corrections through your valuable journal in which the article appeared.

In the first place, my name is not John; and in the second place, to say that the work was under my direction and that I met with little success, is fitting below the belt.

The facts are that Mr. Ginter and his associates, as engaged by myself, have been in charge of the actual drilling work since its inception, and that their failure to get down to the requisite depth to strike the gas horizon in the first well, was not the fault of Mr. Dingman, but simply an incident of detail with work of this kind in new and untested territory.

Early in the initial work of the project, through a personal disagreement with one or more members of the Board of Directors, I severed my connection with the North West Gas and Oil Company, at which time, the first well was down some 800 feet, and as all those who knew anything about the geological conditions, knew that the gas-bearing horizon was very much below that, the question of Mr. Dingman's success or non-success in the work, cannot be predicted upon the work up to that time. It can, however, upon this, that with the franchise, as secured and framed up by Mr. Dingman for the company, and with the drilling plant, etc. secured by Mr. Dingman for the company, and by the practical men secured by Mr. Dingman for the company, the work, under the direction of almost anyone with ordinary business discretion and common sense was bound to prove successful.

Now that gas is being obtained, and the city and the citizens, as the stockholders, will reap all the benefits which may accrue, it appears to me that the directors of the company should be willing to be fair to the extent, at least, of admitting the fact that the above is correct.

Thanking you for the space, I am,
Yours etc.

A. W. DINGMAN.

THE SEED

GRAIN SPECIAL

"Missionary" Train Visited the City
Yesterday—Good Attendance
at the Lectures

The seed selection special, consisting of one tourist car for the accommodation of the travelling lecturers and two auditorium cars, in which the lectures take place, arrived in the city at the First street station of the C. N. R. at two o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Not as many farmers as were expected were present to greet the special on its arrival. As the train drew up to the platform they climbed aboard and were welcomed by the officials and lecturers and were shown seats in the auditorium cars. Both of the cars were well filled and great interest was displayed in exhibits and samples of grain on the walls of the cars and the farmers were invited to inspect them at their pleasure.

The lecturers covered three subjects of most vital importance to the farmers of Alberta, namely the destruction of smut in grain, the destruction of noxious weeds, and the selection of seed. The staff of lecturers travelling with the train are G. H. Clark, Dominion Seed Commissioner, Dr. Jas. Fletcher, Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Angus MacKay, superintendent, Experimental Farm, Indian Head, S. A. Bedford, Superintendent Experimental Farm, Brandon; W. R. Motherwell, minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan and president of the Territorial Grain Growers' Association; Prof. W. J. Black, principal Manitoba Agricultural College, Winnipeg; Prof. Geo. Harcourt, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Alberta; T. N. Willing, Chief Weed Inspector, Regina; D. W. McCuaig, president, R. C. Farmers, vice president, Manitoba Grain Growers' Association; Jas. Murray, Winnipeg; W. C. McKillop, Calgary, Dominion Seed Branch; John A. Mooncy, Valley River, Man.; John Miller, secretary, The Territorial Grain Growers' Association; and Ared. Mitchell, Macleod.

Prof. G. H. Clark was in charge of No. 1 car and the other speakers with him were Angus Mackay and N. T. Willing, A. B. Campbell, president of the Edmonton Board of Trade, and W. B. Lanigan, general freight agent, C. P. R., Winnipeg. In car No. 2 were Dr. Fletcher, A. S. Bedford, Prof. Geo. Harcourt and Hon. A. C. Rutherford.

Prof. Clarke called upon Mr. Campbell of the Board of Trade for a few remarks before opening the lectures. Mr. Campbell said that as he was in the milling business, he was greatly interested in the lectures being delivered on the seed grain special. He thought that the question of the destruction of smut was the most serious for consideration, as the presence of the smut in the grain meant a great loss to the farmers. It was to the interest of not only the farmers but to everybody to find out the cause of the smut and the method for its destruction.

W. B. Lanigan also made a happy speech, telling of the pleasure he had in accompanying the seed special upon its tour of the west. On behalf of the C. P. R. he made a hearty welcome to the farmers and citizens of Edmonton to the seed special. He thought that the weed question was very important. Something should be done to destroy the weed. Out of 127 cars cleaned out at the lake fronts, this fall, 15 per cent. was weed seed. This meant a tremendous loss to the farmers. The weed crop not only contaminated the farmer's own land but also contaminated that of the neighbors. It was not only his opinion but it was the opinion of every man of common sense that the farmer who persistently raised a crop of weeds was a public nuisance. The railways were merely the teams and teamsters to carry the farm produce to market. If the farmer was not able to raise a good crop he was not able to hire the railways to carry his grain to market. The whole future and development of the country depended upon the prosperity of the farmer. Mr. Lanigan remarked that Mr. Whyte the vice-president of the C. P. R. took an active interest in the agricultural development of the north west, and when the startling figures showing the tremendous amount of smut and weed seed in the grain, he immediately enlisted the co-operation of the Dominion Government, and a convention was held in Winnipeg, at which Mr. Clarke, Mr. Harcourt and other prominent agriculturists were present. It was unanimously decided that the best means of fighting this evil was to send through the country a seed selection special to preach the gospel of seed selection and smut and weed eradication. In closing Mr. Lanigan thanked the Edmonton Board of Trade for assisting in getting the farmers to attend the lectures. All along the line they had been greeted by large crowds, and he believed that the special was well

SEED TRAIN SPECIAL.
completing the purpose for which it was intended.
Prof. Clarke then proceeded with his lecture on the cause of smut and the best means of its eradication. His address was exceedingly interesting,
and he used numerous illustrations and charts to assist him in defining more clearly to those present the history of the growth of the seed and the manner in which it became contaminated with smut.
T. N. Willing followed with a very explicit explanation of the various noxious weeds and the best means of dealing with them and becoming free of them. He also dwelt a great deal upon the smut question, and said that the usual remedy used was a solution of bluestone. A very simple test to ascertain whether the bluestone contained iron was to mix a little ammonia with the solution. If the bluestone were pure the solution would remain a deep blue, but if it contained iron it would appear to be of a brownish tint.
Angus MacKay spoke upon the non-germination and selection of seed.
If a farmer sowed seed of which only 50 per cent. would germinate he could not expect to have a good crop. A farmer should know exactly what he is sowing. Some of the best samples of oats he had ever seen had not germinated over five per cent. A good test of seed which would germinate
well was to place some of the seed grain on a piece of cloth on a plate and keep it in a warm room. The seed that germinated in three days would be the best seed while the seed which took longer than three days would be poor seed.
Angus MacKay, in speaking of the eradication of noxious weeds, said that the weeds had to be dealt with
at a certain time and no other time.
The use of the harrow was often a good way in which to eradicate the weeds but it would not do to leave the weeds until they went to seed and then harrow the land. A good time was shortly after the seed grain had been sown, when the weeds were just beginning to come up. Then again in about ten days, when the grain was two or three inches high.
For the Canada Thistle the best time to harrow would be when the thistle was just beginning to bloom, and the nutrition from the roots was used up in producing the flower. The roots were then at their weakest.
Dr. Fletcher lectured on the noxious weeds and their eradication, and
A. S. Bedford spoke upon the smut and the means of destroying it. Prof.
Hibbott addressed a few words to those present, impressing upon them
the remarks made by the previous speakers.
At the close of the lectures pamphlets dealing with the subjects lectured upon were distributed.
The special left this morning for the east over the C. N. R. taking in points along the line.

February.

Mayor May stated this morning that he expected that the entire city council would be able to go to Winnipeg on the 27th with the Canadian Northern excursion to meet the telegraph experts and the railway managers to the prairie capital. At a later hour Alderman W. A. Griesbach stated that he did not think that he would be able to get away,
and he may be the only absentee at the Winnipeg conference. Experts Kitch who was written to over a week ago, asking him to act as consulting expert on the rebuilding of the city's telephone system, has not yet been heard from, and the council is therefore hardly likely to have the benefit of his advice in looking into the various telephone appliances at Winnipeg.

HAYS TALKS ON RAILWAY MAT- TERS

Toronto, Jan. 17.—Not for years have the railways of Canada had their general case put before the public in more skillful and interesting manner than in an address of Charles M. Hays, general manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, and president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, before the Canadian club. Although he rarely appears in the role of public speaker,

his fame had preceded him, with the result that there was a record attendance of five hundred. Mr. Hays seized the opportunity of arguing the case for the railways on the many controversial points. Naturally he discussed the question of rates and gave figures to show that the railway transportation in America is now the cheapest in the world. At the same time he asked if Canadians could expect as low rates
with our limited mileage and population as were granted with greater mileage and population in the United States.

Incidentally he referred to the pressure on railway managers for costly improvements on the one hand and for lower rates on the other, with, at the same time, the necessity for paying interest on investments. He therefore urged his hearers not to do anything to prejudice the interests of the railways who are so far dependent on foreign capital for their investment.
Turning to the Canadian question in particular, Mr. Hays made two or three significant remarks. One was his belief in the necessity of the section of the new transcontinental railway north of Lake Superior being constructed. He also urged that the Dominion Government should in future devote money toward enlarging the facilities of lake and ocean ports, instead of further improvements on canals, and that ocean points should be nationalized. The waterways should be improved and he knew of no country so wonderfully endowed with such means of regulating railway rates.

"I have heard it said," continued Mr.
Hays, "that I favored lakes, but had no use for a line to the north of Lake Superior. Gentlemen, that would be a very great mistake from a business standpoint if I ever for a moment had such an idea. The waterways will always command a large percentage of the grain during the season of navigation, but just as there has been from Chicago by rail, so there will be from the Canadian northwest an ever-increasing volume of traffic going by rail after the lakes have closed, and what you need is to get that traffic by rail in as easy grades and directness of line as possible.

"Then if there is any province interested in that portion of the undertaking it is Ontario, which for years must be the manufacturing centre of Canada for all that rapidly growing territory of the northwest where labor will be too expensive to start, manufacture, and where you must ship furniture, reapers, harvesters, threshers, boots and shoes, dry goods and everything that settlers need. Ontario must have not only water connection, but the best of rail connection the year round, to the Canadian northwest."
